Riot in Fight Camp As Jack Johnson Hides

"Big Smoke" Refuses to Box Before Spectators—Jess Willard Confident of Gaining Verdict—Gossip of the Boxers.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Havana, April 1.—A riot occurred in the stadium today because Jack Johnson refused to work out in a downpour of rain. A crowd of 400 had gathered to see the "big smoke" go through his stunts, and when it was announced that Johnson would not train outside, but would do his work in the gymnasium, the crowd demanded the return of the admission price.

The management refused to part with this money, but offered to give out rain checks, entitling the holders to admission tomorrow.

This angered the crowd, which commenced to throw things. The seats and nearly everything portable in the place were torn up, and the air was filled with missiles. Heads were ducking the flying chairs and stones, and the gate had nearly been torn off its hinges when a riot call was sounded and the Cuban police, coming on the double-quick, put a hasty stop to the disturbance.

Johnson Makes Statement.

Johnson did not do any work this morning and spent the major portion of the afternoon at the race track, where, questioned, he said:

"I am in condition to fight the greatest battle of my life. I want my friends to bet on me and tell them all to do so. I will win before the fight."

NONPAREILS LOSE TO BREVIERS.

Winners Take First and Third Games—Switzer High Man.

In the Washington Herald Printers' Bowling League yesterday the Breviers took two games from the Nonpareils. The Breviers took the first game by six pins. The Nonpareils came right back and captured the second game by twenty-nine pins, while in the third game it was nip and tuck till the final bow, when the Breviers won out over their rivals by two pins.

Switzer, for the Breviers, had the high average, when he topped the maples in his first game for 114, also getting the highest average for the day with 100.1, closely pushed by Eddie Beck, who had an average of 99. Calhoun was third high man with 85, and Brigham came in fourth with 84.1. Scores:

Nonpareils	1st	2d	3d
Beck	100.1	99.0	98.0
Calhoun	85.0	84.0	83.0
Brigham	84.1	83.0	82.0
